Have you seen her? Yeah I've seen her before
How's she doin'? Same way as before
Like a flower she breaks
Through the showers into my heartHow'd you meet her? A friend of a friend I guess
When you see her you'll be, oh, so impressed
When she smiles, it just drives me wild all the timeI, I go crazy, I go crazy without you
I, I go crazy, I go crazy
I go crazy when I'm without youHave you heard? Yeah the words on the street
She's the one, they're all dying to meet
Like a flower she bursts
Through the showers into my heartCan you believe her? She's everything that I need
With a face that's stolen from a magazine
When she smiles, it just drives me wild all the timeI, I go crazy, I go crazy without you
I, I go crazy, I go crazy
I go crazy when I'm without you, I
