Fake

Guano Apes

We won't get away,
We are left with hungry eyes
And everybody wants the same.
I'm in love with the world and Sometimes I can see a blink of paradise.Until we do it again
We're into the fake
As long as the truth has more enemies
than the lie has friends.
We're gonna do it again,
We're into the fake
than the lie has friends.We just want to live
And we don't want just another lie
Rolling like a stone on me
And we could rule the world
If our hearts would have a bigger size
Bigger than todayWe're gonna do it again
'Cause we're born into fake
As long as the truth has more enemies
than the lie has friends.
We're gonna do it again
'Cause we're into the fake
As long as the truth has more enemies than the lie has friends.Fake, fake, fake.And we all have to pay
We're into the fake
As long as the Truth has more enemies
than the lie has friends.
'Cause we were born to fake
And what a mistake
As long as the truth has more enemies
than the lie has friends.
