

Woman I Know

Bernard Butler

Well, I feel so alive
Got no reason to hide
There ain't any woman I know
That's got me so highI got things on my mind
That will reach you in time
There ain't any woman I know
That's got me so highAnd though she really lied
Yes though she really lied
There ain't any woman I know
That's got me so highAnd though we really tried
Yes though we really tried
There ain't an emotion I know
So low, so lowGot a reason to stay
She's taken the pain from yesterday
Got a reason to stay
She's got no rhythm, she says
(Ooo)
She's got no rhythm, she says
(Ooo)Got a reason to stay
She's taken the pain from yesterday
Got a reason to stay
She's got no rhythm, she says
(Ooo)
She's got no rhythm, she says
(Ooo)So I feel so alive
Got no reason to hide
There ain't an emotion I know
So low, so low
