Monsters (feat. Ricia)

Yellopain

I wish I could talk to the monsters
Have a conversation with the monsters
Ask them if they even know theyâ€™re monsters
I wonder if they even know theyâ€™re monsters

I just want to talk to you one time
I donâ€™t really want to, but I have to, gotta ask you
Did you really have to?
My trust wasnâ€™t even that bad and I wouldâ€™ve put it past you
Now I donâ€™t trust shit
Cause you wanna do that little dumb shit
I wonder if you went to sleep that night
Prolly felt bad, Slept it off, woke up, ate something right
I didnâ€™t eat nothin, way too disgusted bitch
I was up cryin pain in my stomach bitch

Was it just tryin to help you or control me
I hope it helped you cause it broke me
I went to the pew to consult me
But it didnâ€™t change, I can never be the old me
Feeling lonely and I ainâ€™t want no one to hold me
Cause I ainâ€™t wanna meet another you
Prolly take a day or a year to get over for you
But for me I donâ€™t think Iâ€™m gettin through it
When I have kids Imma be so overprotective
Play detective cause I canâ€™t let,
Knowing what you did to me, happen to them, not again

I hope you know I cry sometimes
I wonder if that gives you strength
I donâ€™t know how you feel, but I feel like shit, for real
Really almost slit my wrists, for real
Bet you aint know I have nightmares did you?
Bet you prolly donâ€™t care
Prolly somewhere with a smile on your face
Not knowing that I feel this way, damn

I wish I could talk to the monsters
Have a conversation with the monsters
Ask them if they even know theyâ€™re monsters

I wonder if they even know theyâ€™re monsters

And Iâ€™ll cry, one last time
But I wonâ€™t let you hurt me anymore...
Still alive...
And Iâ€™ll die, before I let you hurt me
Anymore...

I canâ€™t erase it.
I know what youâ€™re going through, trust me, I really do.
But it canâ€™t be worse if you let it be.
This is your moment, to see from a different view.
I know itâ€™s a struggle cause you would be happier,
If you could forget what they did to you
I know they invaded, but you still amazing
Thatâ€™s somethinâ€™ that they couldnâ€™t steal from you.
Thatâ€™s somethinâ€™ nobody can take from you.
No itâ€™s not your fault so quit blaming you.
They knew it was wrong when they did it but kept going with it,
Itâ€™s nothin you made â€˜em do
Keep hugging that pavement itâ€™ll strangle you
I know you can make it, I pray for you
Accepting what happened is brave of you
Itâ€™s brave for your body, you made it through.

And Iâ€™ll cry, one last time
But I wonâ€™t let you hurt me anymore...
Still alive...
And Iâ€™ll die, before I let you hurt me
Anymore...
