

Carry Me Home

Hem

We were raised in the nettles
And they showed us how they grow
Where a poison comes to settle
And what a poisoned man comes to know
So me and Jessie, we left Ohio
Left him bleeding on the valley floor
I felt so dirty I could hardly stand it
Carrying Jessie on my back
She said, "Hold on, I know you'll bury him for me
Hold on, I know you'll bury him for me
Hold on, I know you'll carry me and carry me
And carry me home"
Tell me nothing's wrong there
Tell me nothing's wrong there
Tell me nothing's wrong there
