

Blue

System Of A Down

I'm wishin' and wishin' away at You, God
I'm wishin' and wishin' away at You, God
I don't see nothing but pain and misery 'cause You are the one for me
Why can't it all be true? Can I escape with my blue fallen reverie?
Why can't it all be true? Why can't it all be true?
I'm wishin' and wishin' away at You, God
I'm wishin' and wishin' away at You, God
Suddenly, I believe You are the one for me
Graciously, You flow through my closed hearts artery
Can I escape with my blue fallen reverie?
Why can't it all be true? Why can't it all be true?
I've been wishin' away at You God
I've been wishin' away at You
I've been wishin' away at You God
I don't see nothing but pain and misery 'cause You are the one for me
Why can't it all be true? Can I escape with my blue fallen reverie?
Why can't it all be true? Why can't it all be true?
Wishin' and wishin' away at You, God
