

Million Pieces (A Million and One Mix)

Newsboys

Oh, yeah
Oh, yeah
Oh, yeah Oh, they all fall like a million raindrops
Falling from a blue sky, kissin' your cares goodbye
Oh as they all fall like a million pieces
A ticker tape parade high and now you're free to fly I'm carryin' a millstone malaise
It's been pulling down your gaze
You pound the pavement, it don't give or care
This weight ain't yours to bear Why you holdin' grudges in old jars?
Why you wanna show off all your scars?
What's it gonna take to lay a few burdens down?
It's a beautiful sound And they all fall like a million raindrops
Falling from a blue sky, kissin' your cares goodbye
Oh as they all fall like a million pieces
A ticker tape parade high and now you're free to fly When that muffled sigh
Says you're barely getting by
Cut your burdens loose
And just simplify, simplify This is not your floor
You're going higher than before
Drop the weight now
Wait for the lookout guide, look outside As they all fall like a million raindrops
Falling from a blue sky, kissin' your cares goodbye
Oh as they all fall like a million pieces
A ticker tape parade high and now you're free to fly You've gotta lay that burden down
You've gotta lay that burden down
It's time to leave your burdens in a pyre
Set a bonfire 'Cause when you lay your burdens down
When you drop them burdens
What a free-fall, what a thrill
Bury them all in a landfill Oh oh, they all fall like a million raindrops
Falling from a blue sky, kissin' your cares goodbye
Oh oh, they all fall like a million pieces
A ticker tape parade high and now you're free to fly Oh, they all fall like a million raindrops
Falling from a blue sky, kissin' your cares goodbye
Oh as they all fall like a million pieces
A ticker tape parade high and now you're free to fly They all fall like a million raindrops
Falling from a blue sky, kissin' your cares goodbye

A ticker tape parade high and now you're free to fly
