Crimson King

Demons & Wizards

Show me your banner
Come show me your sign
The crimson king's eye
Is the mark to reveal you are mineI am your master
I will make your dreams come true
I'm your messiah
A twisted one as you may knowMy right hands, my servants
My soldiers, my tools
Spread out the good news
Find my children and gather them allWe'll take all low men
All the hatred, evil souls
We share one desire
A wicked one as you may knowTouched by the crimson king
Touched by the savior
The tower falls on judgment dayTouched by the crimson king
Touched by the savior
Like it's been written many years agoI am the angel, I am madness
I am the word, I am the law
I'm holding truth release your sadness
I am the key, I am the doorRelease
Oh, there is war and evil, whores and sinners
Take my hand and I'll show you where to goCall me Flagg
I'm the good man, I'm the dark man
Take my hand and I'll show you where to goRelease
Come take my hand to the promised landRedeemer, deceiver
The demon, the man in blackThe universe is void, just you and I
Let there be light
The stars will rise and fall againClimbing to the top, an empty room
Is all there is, oh, I fear it is Prophecies were made of you and I
The vision's strong
But meanwhile I keep on fallingOh, what a miracle is life
An even bigger one is size
It's just the way it is
I fear it is, it's just the way it isLife's a wheel, nothing more
It goes round and around and a
I am the ageless, I am legion
I'm your lord, I will bring terror
I'm a demon in disguiseThe thrill of a thousand

Worlds dying at once
But my ultimate goal
Lies beyond the downfallTouched by the crimson king
Touched by the savior
The tower falls on judgment dayTouched by the crimson king
Touched by the savior
Like it's been written many years ago
