

Til I Hit the Ground

Reel Big Fish

Check, check, check
Hey, heySky is fallin'
It's alright, it's alright, I'll be fine
Now I'm fallin'
It's alright, it's alright, gonna look like I'm flyin'We'll they're screamin' at my windows
They got axes in their hands
They're choppin' down the back door
Of my wonderin' promise landThey're beggin' me to save the world
They're dealin' at my feet
I'm tellin' them the anti-Christ
Lives just across the streetSky is fallin'
It's alright, it's alright, I'll be fine
Now I'm fallin'
It's alright, it's alright, gonna look like I'm flyin'Oh my heart, it is an open sword
It never seemed to dry
And a thousand words just got me bloody fingers
And I wish that I could cryShe only stopped that laughin'
Long enough to dry a tear
I wish that I was some place else
But I found I'm always hereSky is fallin'
It's alright, it's alright, I'll be fine
Now I'm fallin'
It's alright, it's alright, gonna look like I'm flyin'Sky is fallin'
It's alright, it's alright, I'll be fine
Now I'm fallin'
It's alright, it's alright, gonna look like I'm flyin'Well, I've got no time to argue
And I got no time to spare
The world is burnin' down at night
And she don't really careI would give her everything
But I tell you it's a shame
'Cause she is all I think about
And I just forgot her nameSky is fallin'
It's alright, it's alright, I'll be fine
Now I'm fallin'
It's alright, it's alright, gonna look like I'm flyin'
