Flourish

Sameblod

[Verse 1]
It's over?
I couldn't reach you
I couldn't preach my words
Let me show you
My only fiction
I'm starting texting, so
And I'm sure I need to let you go
I need to let you go soon,
'Cause there's more than I,
It's more than I could go through in life[Chorus]
And I don't want nobody tell what's next
'Cause I'm the only one that knows why I'm all stressed
and I don't even like these feelings I get
I'll make my own way, I need to let it go!
I need to let it go, let it go!
I told you I'm letting pieces, I'm letting pieces I get and to come closer at love with somebody else,
Give my thoughts a rest[Chorus]
And I don't want nobody tell what's next
'Cause I'm the only one that knows why I'm all stressed
and I don't even like these feelings I get
I'll make my own way, I need to let it go!
I need to let it go, let it go!
I need to let it go, let it go!
I need to let it go, let it go!Can't stop leave myself at emotion, or I can fell incontinence
Be with my emotions
Understanding emotion, with myself I'm conquered
Keep this world's distortions
Come clean my emotions, emotions
