

Enemy of the Enemy

Asian Dub Foundation

Open up, open up, open up
Open up
Enemy, enemy, enemy
Enemy, enemy Bring this Enemy of the enemy, who?
Enemy of the enemy, what?
Enemy of the enemy, who?
Enemy of the enemy, what? Enemy of the enemy, who?
Enemy of the enemy, what?
Enemy of the enemy
Me, me Babylon is really burning this time
My chick is coming home to roost on a Soviet airline
Climbing on the subway, burning eyes spinning head
Walking through the station, breaking into a cold sweat Is the ticking time bomb in my head or your bag
Have you been snorting white lines with president, gas
Crawling from the wreckage of my tumblin' tower block
Someone else had to finish the job It was the enemy of the enemy
The enemy of the enemy
He's a friend
Till he's the enemy again It was the enemy of the enemy
The enemy of the enemy
He's a friend
Till he's the enemy again Enemy of the enemy, who?
Enemy of the enemy, what?
Enemy of the enemy, who?
Enemy of the enemy, what? Enemy of the enemy, who?
Enemy of the enemy, what?
Enemy of the enemy
Me, me Rig a dig Starin' out the window at 50,000 feet
At the mercy of the skies, no escape velocity
And as your eyes meet my skin, see the terror on your face
Do you want it to stop, put yourself in their place Where what your life is worth depends on where you live
Too many generations down the line to forgive
If all you knew was total war from every side
You'd have to decide, you'd have to decide Who's the enemy of the enemy
The enemy of the enemy
He's a friend
Till he's the enemy again Who's the enemy of the enemy
The enemy of the enemy
He's a friend

Till he's the enemy again
Choose the enemy, know the enemy
Love the enemy, feed the enemy
Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy
Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy
Choose the enemy, know the enemy
Love the enemy, feed the enemy
Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy
Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy
Keep your friends close
But keep your enemies closer
Closer, closer, closer
Keep your friends close
But keep your enemies closer
Closer, closer, closer
This is easy, uh, they got a turban
We don't have to know
What's going on in the turban
Just proceed with the story
Choose the enemy, know the enemy
Love the enemy, feed the enemy
Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy
Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy
Choose the enemy, know the enemy
Love the enemy, feed the enemy
Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy
Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy
Keep your friends close
But keep your enemies closer
Closer, closer, closer
Keep your friends close
But keep your enemies closer
Closer, closer, closer
It was the enemy of the enemy
The enemy of the enemy
He's a friend
Till he's the enemy again
It was the enemy of the enemy
The enemy of the enemy
He's a friend
Till he's the enemy again
Choose the enemy, know the enemy
Love the enemy, feed the enemy
Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy
Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy
Choose the enemy, know the enemy
Love the enemy, feed the enemy
Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy
Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy
