Gold And Silver

Quicksilver Messenger Service

Gold and Silver don't mean a thing
You spend your fortunes on diamond rings
It holds you back from your true ending
You feel so useful condemning me
You're half the man
(You're half the man that I am)
You're half the man
(You're half the man)
Corroded minds and black and white eyes
The honest side will break all of your ties
These fleeting games and the emptiest lies
You want it all; you want it all
My misfortune's your guarantee
And when I'm falling you'll gain the lead
And living hostel is all you need
You gave your heart up for awful things
You're half the man
(You're half the man that I am)
You're half the man
(You're half the man)

Corroded minds and black and white eyes
The honest side will break all of your ties
These fleeting games and the emptiest lies
You want it all; you want it all
I'm so tired and getting bored
With all the overdramatic tones
So lend me all your ears
Cause right now I'm gonna say
Corroded minds and black and white eyes
You want it all; you got it all
Corroded minds and black and white eyes
The honest side will break all of your ties
These fleeting games and the emptiest lies
You want it all; you want it all
Corroded minds and black and white eyes
The honest side will break all of your ties
These fleeting games and the emptiest lies
You want it all; you want it all

Gold and Silver don't mean a thing
