

Don't You Worry, Love

Oh Honey

When your head feels heavy,
And you're walkin' alone.
When the road is empty,
And everything you own is broken or sold. Light will always find its way in,
Into the cracks of the night.
Open your eyes. When the world gets dark,
Don't you worry, love.
And the demons, let 'em starve,
Don't you worry, love. When the air gets colder,
Don't let ya heart turn to stone.
Let the weight fall off your shoulders.
And know in the end, you'll find your way home. Light will always find its way in,
Into the cracks of the night.
Open your eyes. When the world gets dark,
Don't you worry, love.
And the demons, let 'em starve,
Don't you worry, love. The fear in my chest,
Is burning fire red.
Ya know, ya know, ya know.
My love is turning blue,
I'd never lie to you.
There's hope, there's hope, there's hope. When the world gets dark,
Don't you worry, love.
And the demons, let 'em starve,
Don't you worry, love.
