White Ladder

Mood Tattooed

White ladder water and wine
Forever crying all the time
Along water fail tonight
There's no rhyme or reason to loveHey sweet love
Wide river thunder and war
Hell made it time oh no
Throw water have no moreThere's no rhyme or reason to love
Hey sweet sweet love
Hey
To the night other part through partyThrough the night another way
Through the night another valentine
Burning free
Through the night another partyThrough the night another name
Through the night another valentine
Burning free
Tall order tremble insideForever crying oh my
Yeah yeah yeah
Alone water here tonight
There's no rhyme or reason to loveHey sweet sweet love
Through the night another party
'Til the night another day
To the night another valentineBurning free
To the night another party
Through the night another way
Through the night another valentineBurning free
To the night another body
To the night another name
To the night another valentineBurning free
White ladder water and wine
No water here tonight
