Time Waits

Gloria Estefan

Time gave me a window to be here
Time made me some space
Allowed me
EntryBlink, children have grown
They're on their own
Years, swift as a day
Before you know go blazing awayI'll live like forever is now
Because time waits for no one
And tomorrow just may not come 'round
Because time waits for no one
When we're gone
Only love goes onTime, it's seamless illusion seduced me
Time, to show me the ropes
Enticed me
To waste itBut truth is much better seen
Within our dreams
Life's infinite thread
Unraveling then starting againI'll live like forever is now
Because time waits for no one
And tomorrow just may not come 'round
Because time waits for no one
When we're gone
Only love goes onTime waits for no one, it all seems to happen so fast
(Time won't wait, oh no)
No end, no beginning
I'll live like each moment's the last
(Time won't wait, oh no)Just when it's over, the journey has merely begun
(Time won't wait, oh no)
No you, no me, in the end there is only the one
(Time won't wait, oh no)
