Time Waits

Gloria Estefan

Time gave me a window to be here
Time made me some space
Allowed me
EntryBlink, children have grown
They're on their own

Years, swift as a day

Before you know go blazing awayI'll live like forever is now

Because time waits for no one

And tomorrow just may not come 'round

Because time waits for no one

When we're gone

Only love goes on Time, it's seamless illusion seduced me

Time, to show me the ropes

Enticed me

To waste itBut truth is much better seen

Within our dreams

Life's infinite thread

Unraveling then starting againI'll live like forever is now

Because time waits for no one

And tomorrow just may not come 'round

Because time waits for no one

When we're gone

Only love goes on Time waits for no one, it all seems to happen so fast

(Time won't wait, oh no)

No end, no beginning

I'll live like each moment's the last

(Time won't wait, oh no)Just when it's over, the journey has merely begun

(Time won't wait, oh no)

No you, no me, in the end there is only the one

(Time won't wait, oh no)
