K-OS

Hey, it's the same once again
Microphones fully loaded and friend
Funny I try to make this end
But it seems I'm returnin' a name it's the same once again
Microphones fully loaded and friend
Funny I try to make this end
But it seems I'm returnin' Yeah, paper, cutz
Papercutz, Paper
Here we go, paper cut-t
paper, paper, cutz, papercutz paper paper, cutz So ah k-os, Are you gonna do another album man? Yo look man, yo you see all there, you critics, hey check it out hahaha Yo, I know I said i'd exit
But i couldn't do it the minute
It flowed from my lips Futures can't exist
In a past time paradise Rollin' dice, holdin' Christ on a platinum chain, surrounded by ice sisinel sirus?, you can't deny this Because the light has brokin' and tokens have been replaced by legal tender Great pretendas tried to asend my agenda I dismembered their thought patterns and now they move in circles like Saturn Spinning out of orbital formation Yea
The radio station is hatin' and so is my motivation yea 'cause the pen and the pad are the only friends that I had When the light can not be seen
I'm a fiend for the rap game and its gettin them like I'm a figurine
That move in articulate shadow boxin' appeal
What is real is irrelative, it is relatively revealed That's why i sharpen these words
To you like papercutz
And I wreck visual images like I'm Julian Lutz What's the name of this runaway train?
call it thought, harassin' the grain drivin' humans insane
This thing called the rap game, I'm claimin' insane

Lyricaly I'm arcane, and such is papercutzOK toronto lets slow it down a little commin bit like thisCataclysmic, mistic, with a bic don't to think on a diamond mine Gotta take it back, to the heart attack
That I felt when I saw the sign Comin' down from the sky like a supernova Jehovah Got a crib and a land rover
But so what, i'm not sober Just takin' sips but I don't skip Just makin' trips so I don't tip These papercutz just ain't enough
They makin' hits, and I can't touch Just look at Hammer now
My grammar is tighter, provider
In light of freedom fighter, rhythm writer and rappin'
And yet you don't try it because you can't buy it I saw you grippin' and slippin'and fool I'm so tired of fake emcees and you best believe got tricks and the trade hidden up my sleeve and I pray to God when I'm on my knees that I can break it, cut this paper, Paperpaper paper papercutz damnwe are tearing the reachesI've captured fractions of the globe inside my mind in fleeting moments that I hold fast to and throw them to infinity in every step or less then every breath of less then each confession states a second of the time thats slowly killing me inside these sentences the place where my repentance is I'm so afraid in trying to turn these exits into entrances I'm thinkin all of what i had and scratch it down onto a pad but never saw the light of day hence the tension is, rising up inside of me crying for those that died for me, my true friends
but it seems the selfish confide in me they talk but they got listenin' kissing the ground and living in deception at the same time there's nothing to put their vision in the half-empty could of chosen to pull the world over their own eyes they go blind thinking the comforts fool but they don't realize each and every word
it has potential thoughts become reality standards and instramental those fleeting momemnts that i spoke of, they got more than taken thoughts better off then laws, we call them inspiration those fragments of the globe we use them as illumination moving on the fabric of time the purpose is fortificaion making sobuh-bye buh-bye buh-by baa baa baa baaaaathree minutes
