

Bloodline

Crown the Empire

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Rise.
You took a part of me.
I've wasted all this time just giving up.
The revolution's starting,
Why don't you try and stop it.
We've lost control of our minds.
You think we're giving in?
It's time to prove yourself. So let the battle begin.
We're not the same kids you used to know.
So you wanna play this dangerous game?
Well we're ready to go.
So at the end of the world.
Let's let em hear us say. We are we are- the creatures that you've hunted.
We are we are- the ghosts of hope you've killed.
Stand up stand up stand up- we're taking back tomorrow.
Become become become- become the cog and crown. You think you're done with me?
Like you can light the match and not get burned?
We are the kids you love to hate.
The ones that never learned to be part of the system.
We were born to tear shit inside out.
So sharpened your teeth.
Ready your guns.
The revolution starts now.
We've already died if we give in to everything they ask.
So become more tonight.
We are your bloodline, unleash hell.
This is your bloodline.
We are your lifeline.
So let them hear us say. We are we are- the creatures that you've hunted.
We are we are- the ghosts of hope you've killed.
Stand up stand up stand up- we're taking back tomorrow.
Become become become- become the cog and crown.
