

Pictures In The Mirror

The Living End

You know we tried to make you understand
We tried to make you realize her fame is down and time is up
But somehow it don't seem enough
?Cos the world wouldn't listen anymore
Caught by social evil
Wasn't streetwise after all
Was she there at all?
Pictures in the mirror, pictures she never knew
Pictures in the mirror, always reflecting you
Not such an ordinary life
Pictures in the mirror
Pictures in the mirror
The sun goes down
The moon appears on the horizon
The streets are bare
She walks alone
