

I Believe in Everything

Alberta Cross

I have my reasons to despise for everything
I have no weapons to chose sides
I have my treasons to lie for what it bring
I have devotions cast and feelOh my oasis is away from everything
I let emotions cast away
Oh my reasons just hanging by a string
I've been dreaming
But believe in everything
I believe it starts tonightI have my reasons you're a saint
I have a notion cast in fate
You have a treason to explain
I have devotions cast in fearOh my oasis is away from everything
I let emotions cast away
Oh my reasons just hanging by a string
I've been dreaming
But believe in everything
I believe it starts tonightMy ashes been burned
I've been waiting
I've been waiting too long
My ashes been fallen
I've been waiting
I've been waiting too longYou have no reason to explain
I have a notion cast away
