

Fiona's Apple

Diesel Boy

me, I'm nothing but a goddam liar set me loose on the wolves I am hungry = hope the sides of the dice add to seven 'cause I won't be back clean your = plate and masturbate and fill the world with pride and joy and look him, = he's such a dream, he's mommy's little boy tell me friends and tell my = girlfriend what I said before I said I'm leaving town, I'm outta here, I = won't be back no more I just need to believe I have gone away to become = a big star I just need to believe a limousine, a record deal, a video, = I'll make it far greed, fill your pockets and your swimming pools with = silver build me a temple 'cause I'm your fucking hero I've gone off the end = of the world and I won't be back
