Head In My Hands

Birds Of Tokyo

Crouched in your mouth
It happened to soon, I know
Insults were thrown
You think that you're grown by nowFeelings inside
Start to subside and grow
Where are you now
Where are you now let me knowYou got your head in your hands
Stop screaming
You got your head in your hands
Stop screaming, stop screaming'Cause the world wakes up
And it pulls you in
You can do no wrong
It's loving you stillYeah, the world wakes up
And it pulls you in
You can do no wrong
It's loving you still
It's loving youWhere are you now?
Where are you now, tell me?
Are you scratching your eyes?
Are you torn up inside, let's see?Did your walls tumble down?
Did they push you around too much?
Have you nothing to say?
Are you running away from the touch?You got your head in your hands
Stop screaming
You got your head in your hands
Stop screaming, stop screaming'Cause the world wakes up
And it pulls you in
You can do no wrong
It's loving you stillYeah, the world wakes up
And it pulls you in
You can do no wrong
It's loving you stillLoving you still
Loving you still
It's loving you
It's loving you
It's loving youYeah, the world wakes up
And it pulls you in
You can do no wrong
It's loving you stillYeah, the world wakes up

And it pulls you in
You can do no wrong
It's loving you stillYeah, the world wakes up
Yeah, the world wakes up
Yeah, the world wakes upI wish, the world would wake up
It's loving you still
Loving you still
Loving you still
Loving you still
