Nemesis

Benjamin Clementine

(He chants)If I held my breath on you,
I will die a thousand times
And if chewing was to show you how much I cared
I would have probably be wearing dentures by nowIf I held my breath on you,
I will die a thousand times
And if chewing was to show you how much I cared
I would have probably be wearing dentures by nowPromises broken
Nemesis our token
Turned around and marched on out to a new home
Oh but wherever you've gone darling
Don't forget toTreat others the way, you wanna be treated
Remember your days are fully numbered(He chants march on)If you held your breath on me
You would have died a million times
And if chewing was to show me how much I cared
You would have probably swallowed your tongue by nowAll am trying to say is that you know very well that I left her for you
Now I guess you are doing the same old same thing to me nowThese days Hennessy dries my veins
Whilst our genesis flies back at me
Now Heresy might be your new faith, faith
But whatever you believe in
Make sure you never forget toTreat others the way, you wanna be treated
Remember your days are fully numberedTreat others the way, you will want to be treated
Remember your days are fully numberedCan't say anything for you no more
Nemesis is on your case baby
Next time!
Treat others the way you will want to be treated
Else there will be punishment
Ohh and there she comes
Life ain't a bitch,
Nemesis is
And she is the mother of KarmaSo long you run
