Like Water

J Ross Parrelli

Can't be bottled like Water Only need chya when I wanthcya
Try to holdchya but I gotchya my beybeyLike Fresh air I can't breathe unless you're near I envy your shadow when Im not there, I loose my cool when you walk in the room, I can be your bap, you can be my boom, never met a man that can stray my heart like romeo you play the part use love as an art make each day feel like a new start you match my beat magically turn passion to heat I sweat from my palms to my feet you make me so damn weak I love your technique you're so damn unique a rebel raised fist with sultry in his soul sensitivity with the most masculine flow if you're in it then the world is mine If I could find you every lifetime,Chorus You Can't be bottled like Water I Only need chya when I wanthcya I Try to holdchya but I gotchya my beybeySent from the heavens yeah it's gotta be you, you can't be human there's no one like you politcally poetical you make my heart melt, dealt a king, your royalty brings things my soul has never felt, you are the reason love was created, God debated before he let you leave the heavens, found love in you gave you wings to grow, made love from music so natural smile like an angels hanging on my lips smooth like your fingertips, sweet caress of your words make my world stop steal my breath make my chest pop beybeyChorusCan't be bottled like Water Only need chya when I wanthcya
Try to holdchya but I gotchya my beybeyI like it I like it I really Really like itI like the style of beats you flip

I like the lyrics from your lips It's just those little things you do, Im so in love with you,
