

Grim and Frostbitten Kingdoms

Immortal

Frostbitten I became forthwith to see
Crystallized dimensions
To where the unfaithful fly
You might say I'm deionized Yet not the only one
You must come to me
There are nocturnal paths to follow Painted faces from earlier centuries
Wander by desecrating winds
Binded shadows cast out from daylight
And from the beaten lands Frostbitten I became forthwith to see
Crystallized dimensions
To where the unfaithful fly
You might say I'm deionized Yet not the only one
You must come to me
There are nocturnal path to follow Enjoying the circle of eminent silence
Amidst the glacial abyss
Join my yearning emptiness
And the knowing of being beneath Grim and frostbitten kingdoms
