You Can Come Back Home

Matt Simons

Take this heart now give it
Everything
It's your life now live it
Don't shy away
Put all of you in it
I'll be waiting here for you
Show your face don't hide it
And I know you're scared
Spread your wings, don't fight it
On your way
Get that fire ignited
I'll be waiting here for you
And I love to have you near me
But I hate to see you cry
Now I leave for you to hear me
Today we say goodbye
So can come back home again
Ooooooooooh
You can come back home again
Ooooooooooh
You can come back home again
Ooooooooooh
You can come back home
The bed is yours now make it
And it's were you lay
The time is now so take it
And hear me say
This love is strong can't break it
I'll be waiting here for you, yeah
And I love to have you near me
But I hate to see you cry
Now I need for you to hear me
Today we say goodbye
So you can come back home again
Ooooooooooh
You can come back home again
Ooooooooooh
You can come back home again
Ooooooooooh

Yeah, you can come back home
Ooooooooooh
You can come back home again
You can come back home again
Yeah, you can come back home
Take a breath you need it
All the way
Take this fire now feel it
Hear me say
It's your time believe it
