To Me

Chet Faker

You keep on lying,
You keep on lying, to me
You're keeping me tight,
You're keeping me tight, I see
You keep on tying, enough to rely on me
You keep on lying, enough to deny you can seeWhen you curl up in bed
And it's you in you're head now, are you living?
When you look straight ahead and you wish you were dead
Now (now), are you giving?You're giving it all for nothing,
You're giving it all for nothing, I know
You're giving it all for nothing,
You're giving it all for nothing, I knowYou keep on lying,
You keep on lying, to me
You're keeping me tight,
You're keeping me tight, I see
You keep on tying, enough to rely on me
You keep on lying, enough to deny you can seeNow listen,
When you curl up in bed
And it's you in you're head, now (now), are you living?
When you look straight ahead and you wish you were dead
Now (now), are you giving?You're giving it all for nothing,
You're giving it all for nothing, I know
You're giving it all for nothing,
You're giving it all for nothing, I knowYou're giving it all for nothing,
You're giving it all for nothing, I know
You're giving it all for nothing,
You're giving it all for nothing, I knowYou're giving it all for nothing,
You're giving it all for nothing, I know
You're giving it all for nothing,
You're giving it all for nothing, I knowYou're giving it all for nothing,
You're giving it all for nothing, I know
You're giving it all for nothing,
You're giving it all for nothing, I know
