

Silo Lullaby

Toad the Wet Sprocket

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Green button like a lantern
Illuminates this cavern
And outside nothing matters anymore
My instinct won't deceive me
My senses will not leave me
When there's no one left to grieve me, I won't mourn
Good night, don't fear
I always will watch over you my dear
Good night, sleep well
I'll see you with the rest of them in hell
My hand won't shake the console
My handcuff will not rattle
As I win the final battle of all wars
And down beneath the ocean
I'll dream of wings in motion
A blinding glory that'll show 'em what freedom's for
Good night, don't fear
I always will watch over you my dear
Good night, sleep well
I'll see you with the rest of them in hell
And so, for now, farewell
