

Lifeless

12 Stones

Desperate and waiting, frozen to the core numb to this feeling, needing something more all i keep thinking is where i need to be all i can hope for is some one to take me away.

before you go, you promise me something
i need to know, will you leave me lifeless?
leaving me lifeless

will i bow down to this life that i live?
will i find freedom or lose it all again?
all i keep thinking is where i need to be

will i fall away from you?
feelings that i never knew
and i hope that i never fall away

will i fall away from you?
feelings that i never knew
and i hope that i never fall away

before you go, you promise me something
i need to know, will you leave me lifeless?
leaving me lifeless?
time moves so slow, I'm waiting for something waiting for something.

leave me lifeless
leave me lifeless
leave me lifeless
