Breathe

StorySide:B

If I just breathe
I can find my way back to You
If I just feel
I can give myself wholly unto YouAnd I don't have a mind to legalize
What it means to anyone else
So I'll spend my time between the lines
And see what You reveal to meIn Your presence I beleiveI'm free to love You like you want me to
And I'll be exactly what You made me toAnd I'll just breatheAnd I can't beleive all the judgement and intolerance
From the people who proclaim to live in godliness
'Cause I've been there before and I won't close the door
Up on anyone else's faith
And I won't waste my time judging lives
When we all were made imperfectlyIn your presence I beleiveI'm free to love You like you want me to
And I'll be exactly what You made me toOnly you can show me
How to find my way again
Find my way againI'll just breatheI'm free to love You like you want me to
And I'll be exactly what You made me toClose your eyes
Breathe it in push it out
And realize what it's all about
To be exactly what we're made to be
