

Luang Prabang

Dave Van Ronk

[Verse 1]

When I came back from Luang Prabang
I didn't have a thing where my balls used to hang
But I got a wooden medal and a fine harangue

Now I'm a fucking hero[Chorus]

Mourn your dead, land of the free

If you wanna be a hero, follow me

Mourn your dead, land of the free

If you wanna be a hero, follow me[Verse 2]

And now the boys all envy me

I fought for Christian democracy

With nothing but air where my balls used to be

Now I'm a fucking hero[Chorus][Verse 3]

One and twenty cannons thundered

Into the bloody wild blue yonder

For a patriotic balless wonder

Now I'm a fucking hero[Chorus][Verse 4]

In Luang Prabang there is a spot

Where the corpses of your brothers rot

And every corpse is a patriot

And every corpse is a hero[Chorus]
