Nothing To Lose

Structures

What did you expect?
No one can fix this.
You gave up and now you're saying that it's worthless?
You can't speak, you can't breath when you're living lke you're six feet deep (mother fucker)
Oh, do something better with yourself.
Stop placing you worries on top of a shelf.
Take a good hard look in the mirror for help.
Plan action that gives satisfaction, the rest is just a fraction and hate's an attachment to the world.
Don't fear these words are just a form of advice.
"Don't find a vice you fear"
You can't speak, you can't breath when you're living like you're six feet deep.
You did this to yourself so wake up.
Get up, get up, get up
If there's nothing to lose then you've got lost everything that meant something to you.
Fall through the weightless mood and pick yourself up like there's something to prove.
Get up, you've got something to prove.
No one can fix this.
No one can change your life but you.
You did this to yourself so get the fuck up.
You've been asleep for far too long, so wake up.
Get up, get up, get up
If there's nothing to lose then you've got lost everything that meant something to you.
Fall through the weightless mood and pick yourself up like there's something to prove.
Get up, you've got something to prove.
Breathe, breathe.
I can't breathe the air that you breathe.
You can't breathe when your six feet deep.
I can't breathe the air that your breathe
What did you expect?
No one can fix this.
You gave up and now you're saying that it's worthless?
You can't speak, you can't breath when you're living like you're six feet deep (mother fucker)
Oh no, quit living like you're six feet deep.
Breathe.
Tell me that you're worthless.
You've been asleep for far too long and we wrote this song so you could sing along.
You are more than just the hole you came from.
Breathe, Breathe.
I can't breathe the air that you breathe.

You can't breath when you're six feet deep.
