

Luffly

OPM

No use crying over spilt milk
I bring her flowers and we watch them wilt
Naturally built theres nothing store bought
I ought to thank her folks for what shes got
Sex oozes from her every pore
So many butterflies my guts are sore
And even before she opens up her mouth
I know what shes thinking aboutShe fits like a glove
She's as pure as a dove
She's sent from above
She's all I think ofShe's lovely
She's all I think of
She's lovelyShe's gorgeous
She goes against the grain
Extravaganza tastes like sugar cane
We got big plans whatever she chooses
Fky her to Hawaii maybe some cruses
I'll explain it's plain and simple
She's like the cherry in a Shirley Temple
She's the prize at the bottom of the glass
Her eyes are the way she shakes that assShe fits like a glove
She's as pure as a dove
She's all I think ofShe's lovely
She's all I think of
She's lovelyShe makes the sun come up and the moon go down
She the one that makes my world go round
Body like an hourglass
She'll make time stop just to make the night last
She's the one that knows my secret spot
She'll make the coldest nights feel so hot
She ain't into material things
But she's the one that shows me what lovely meansShe's lovely
She's all I think of
She's lovely
