Run Baby Run

The Rigs

Love
Can't protect you now
The love that I can feel
It'll only break you down
Love
A secret that I keep
Who wakes as the world sleeps
Finds you in the moonlight

Ohh
Day lights dying
Run, baby run, baby run
Oh
Full moon rising
Run, baby run, baby run

Dear
The kiss that steels your breath
Will steal your soul instead
When night is all that's left

So wait
Keep your heart inside
My hands won't keep it safe
I'll just feed on dreams and smile as hope slowly dies

Ohh
Day lights dying
Run, baby run, baby run
Oh
Full moon rising
Run, baby run, baby run

Look
Can you see behind these eyes
Can you see what isn't there
The truth dressed up in lies

Ohh
Day lights dying

Run, baby run, baby run
Oh
Full moon rising
Run, baby run, baby run

Ohh
Day lights dying
Run, baby run, baby run
Oh
Full moon rising
Run, baby run, baby run
