

Only God Knows

The Martins

Only God knows if your heart's been
Only God knows all the times you've cried
Only God knows every fear unspoken
Only God knows what your feeling inside.....
Only God knows what your feeling inside.....Only God knows if your heart's been
Only God knows all the times you've cried
Only God knows every fear unspoken
Only God knows what your feeling inside.....
Only God knows what your feeling inside.....There's no greater love than when A brother
Lays his life on the line for another
I know what its like when times get tough
And the kindest word from the best of friends never seems to be enoughOnly God knows if your heart's been
Only God knows all the times you've cried
Only God knows every fear unspoken
Only God knows what your feeling inside.....
Only God knows what your feeling inside.....When all hope is gone and dreams are shattered
And you start to feel like nothing else matters
There's A friend were friends can not be found
He's A friend in deed when your soul in need
He can turn your life around
Turn your life aroundOnly God knows if your heart's been
Only God knows all the times you've cried
Only God knows every fear unspoken
Only God knows what your feeling inside.....
Only God knows what your feeling inside.....Only God knows if your heart's been
Only God knows all the times you've cried
Only God knows every fear unspoken
Only God knows what your feeling inside.....
Only God knows what your feeling inside.....
