Nothing Else

M.Pravda

Ooh, baby
Love isn't just quite what I thought it was
And I'm laughing out
Just because I can't get enough of love
And you're taking back all I thought I knew
The dreams are only dreams, never true
I was a fool, there's you, babe
There's nothing else I'd rather do
There's nothing else, baby, baby, I'd rather do
There's nothing else I'd rather do
Than be with you
Me, it's not that I was lonely as could be
See love was [Incomprehensible] far out of reach
I could not see, see it in me
You and I
Are blessed because we know we gotta try
Sorry's always said, not goodbye
That's why you and I
There's nothing else I'd rather do
There's nothing else, baby, baby, I'd rather do
There's nothing else I'd rather do
Than be with you
Looking back now I see
How long we've got history
Now there's nothing I would rather
I would rather do
There's nothing else I'd rather do
There's nothing else, baby, baby, I'd rather do
There's nothing else I'd rather do
Than be with you, babe
Than be with you, babe
There's nothing else I'd rather do
There's nothing else, baby, baby, I'd rather do
There's nothing else I'd rather do
Than be with you, baby, baby
You, baby, baby, you, baby, baby
[Incomprehensible]
