

Zero-nine

Junkie XL

She was born fat to believe to be wed
Is a blessing with doubt without believe
Matrimony, so phony
Her up bringing real gloomy Like a church mouth to his pouch
Before filling a duty
Counting out to all around
Left room shadow When thoughts about pout
Outlays with sulk
In disgust, she's filled with void
She said Zero-nine, I'm in line to feel fine
Everything else makes me blind Rings are gold and funds are mould
The story turns all to inconsistent, so bold
Now rise and unfold
All awhile I focus in the fiftieth mid Wrapped to a person that could
Only be my dad
Mom's bliss's a chocolate but
Versus regret
She said, she said Zero-nine, I'm in line to feel fine
Everything else makes me blind
Zero-nine, I'm in line to feel fine
Everything else makes me blind The girls next door, slaves to explore Gets more than she's looking for
Adventure k.o. no quid pro quo's
Gonna make her feel down and low What a faint make up (It's)
Hard to keep the face up
Many partners come and go
Before she wakes up Those who stay
Make it tempo-free
Made a wish she said
If you buy yesterday Who's faster, faster each day
And I stay on her finest array
Then I heard her say
I heard her say Zero-nine, I'm in line to feel fine
Everything else makes me blind Talked to the one who had no fun
From the day of their own prom
Hide behind quibbler lunch
Heard the one of great importance Zero-nine, I'm in line to feel fine
Everything else makes me blind

Zero-nine, I'm in line to feel fine
Everything else makes me blind
