I Got Somebody Else

Changing Faces

I got somebody, I got some
I got somebody, I got some
I got somebody, I got some
I got somebody, IWas a fool to let you in
After all the things you did to me, I wasn't happy, oh
You held me open like you did
Didn't see the things I should've seen now you remind meI used to cry every night, you weren't here
Should have been by my side
And now it's time I'm saying that I
I'm making it clear, you should be saying bye bye 'cause II got somebody else, the one I've waited for
He gives me loving, all that I wish for
I got somebody else, someone who's really sure
I'm so in love, he's all that I wish forYou still hang out with your friends
Fool around and then pretend to be thinking about me, oh
But now I got somebody new
Who doesn't treat me like you used to do and now he's my baby booI used to cry every night, you weren't here
Should have been by my side
And now it's time I'm saying that I
I'm making it clear, you should be saying bye bye 'cause II got somebody else, the one I've waited for
He gives me loving, all that I wish for
I got somebody else, someone who's really sure
I'm so in love, he's all that I wish forYou did me wrong when I moved on
I was free to find someone who loved me
I made up my mind to leave you behind
Now I've got somebody elseI got somebody else, the one I've waited for
He gives me loving, all that I wish for
I got somebody else, someone who's really sure
I'm so in love, he's all that I wish forI got somebody else, I got somebody else
I got somebody else, I got somebody else
I, someone I've waited for, someone I've waiting for Got somebodyI, someone I've waited for, the one I'm waiting for Got somebody, I got some
I, the one I've waited for, someone I'm waiting for
Got somebody, I got some
