

Call Home

ELAN

Didn't you know my life would fall
Oh no, and now you've really gone and done it
Was I waiting here too long
Oh no, even the floor got cold Your eyes are watching while I turn the stone
And the city trembles, the clouds unfold [Chorus:]
And I wanna call home, to see if you're not alone
And I wanna call home, to see if you're not alone
Not alone, not alone And still you somehow you grab a hold of me
Spin me around a few times and let go of me
Did you forget to be true to me
Oh no, now I can see Your eyes are watching while I turn the stone
And the city trembles, the clouds unfold [Chorus x3]
