

Steven

Senses Fail

Goodbye
Goodbye
Goodbye November 10th, a cold dark night
You could feel that something wasn't right
That night many hearts did cry
When we learned we had to say goodbye All embraced under one common song
The body is dead but life lives on
All embraced under one common song
The body is dead but life lives on Goodbye, Steven
Goodbye, you friend
You were so young
You were so young Goodbye, Steven
Goodbye, you friend
You were so young The cars lined the streets
As it was coming to an end
The sun shined so brightly
The day we buried our friend All embraced under one common song
The body is dead but life lives on
All embraced under one common song
The body is dead but life lives on Goodbye, Steven
Goodbye, you friend
You were so young
You were so young Goodbye, Steven
Goodbye, you friend
You were so young
You were so young Losing in the fall, lost innocence came down
An 18 year old boy was buried in the ground
A family's broken hearts, a friend's streaming tears
The light lost in death, the living's growing fears Of eternal darkness or is it spiritual light
To come with terms with death on the darkest night
A brother lost a brother, a friend lost a friend
A mother lost a son but Steven's soul will never end A brother lost a brother, a friend lost a friend
A mother lost a son but Steven's soul will never end A brother lost a brother, a friend lost a friend
A mother lost a son but Steven's soul will never end A brother lost a brother, a friend lost a friend
A mother lost a son but Steven's soul will never end November 10th, a cold dark night
You could feel that something wasn't right
That night many hearts did cry
When we learned we had to say goodbye

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>