

Voice Like A Nova

Sever Your Ties

How long will you simple ones
Live your simple ways?
And fools hate knowledge
We should think before we say The animal, the animal has overtaken
You deserve it
Disaster, disaster sweeps over you
Like a whirlwind, a whirlwind Wisdom calls out in the street
A voice is raised in public
At the head of noisy streets, she will speak
In the gateways of the city, she cries out We ignore it
It was something so important
We ignore it
So easy to permit How long will you foolish ones
Live your simple ways?
And simple ones hate knowledge
We should think before we say The animal, the animal has overtaken
You deserve it
Disaster, disaster sweeps over you
Like a whirlwind, a whirlwind Wisdom calls out in the street
A voice is raised in public
At the head of noisy streets, she will speak
In the gateways of the city, she cries out We ignore it
Something so important
We ignore it
So easy to permit

Songwriters

Philippe Gutierrez; Justin Coyle; Michael Gerald Didia; Sean Marnul; Patrick Lemley; Dustin Peterson
Published by SPINNING AUDIO VORTEX MUSIC; MARNUL MUSIC; PHILIPPE ANDRE MUSIC; DUSTIN PETERSON
MUSIC; JUSTIN COYLE MUSIC; DIDIA MUSIC; LEMLEY MUSIC Song Discussions is protected by U.S.
Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>