Sophisticated Lady

REO Speedwagon

Sophisticated lady tryin' to change my ways

Just because you're caught in your social maze

I think it's 'bout time that you realize

Your money and your power's got you mesmerizedPretty lady, get back

Pretty lady, yea

Sophisticated lady put your blue jeans on You're anybody's baby when your mama's goneEducated lady with your college degree Amazes me why you just can't see

Learned everything from your books on the shelf
But no one ever taught you how to think for yourselfPretty lady, get back
Pretty lady, yea, sweet thing

Sophisticated lady put your blue jeans on

You're anybody's baby when your mama's goneSophisticated lady take a lesson from me

I can help you be what you want to be Together we'll see many brighter days

If it takes forever, gonna change your waysPretty lady, get back

Pretty lady, yea, sweet thing

You're anybody's baby when your mama's goneSophisticated lady put your blue jeans on You're anybody's baby when your mama's goneSophisticated lady put your blue jeans on You're anybody's baby when your mama's gone
