

Winning Team

Kt Mulholland

What if I told you that
This life was simple
And everything worked itself out?
Would you believe me
Or go laugh your head off
Saying I don't know what I'm talking about

I got a theory I'm here on the edge of a brand new constitution
Whole world revolution
So if you're on my level
Well I better level with you
I may have devil on my side, but he's

Playing for the winning team
I'm playing for the winning team
When the whole world makes me want to scream
I'm playing for the winning, playing for the winning team

Playing for the winning team
I'm playing for the winning team
Yeah the whole world makes me want to scream
But I'm playing for the winning, playing for the winning team

So what, you hit rock bottom and You're down and out you can
Not seem to find the light yet
Well yeah, its hard to see but
Isnt it a blessing
Knowing that this mess is as Bad as it gets
I stick my chin up and grin
Cause I know there's a win around the corner
Light after the storm
And its only in these moments
(yeah I have my moments)
but that's when I know that I'm meant for more, I'm

Playing for the winning team
I'm playing for the winning team
When the whole world makes me want to scream

Iâ€™m playing for the winning, playing for the winning team

Playing for the winning team

Iâ€™m playing for the winning team

Yeah the whole world makes me want to scream

But Iâ€™m playing for the winning, playing for the winning team

Br Not gonna give up on me no more

Iâ€™m not gonna give up on me no more

Iâ€™m not gonna give up on me no more

Iâ€™m not gonna give up, Iâ€™m not gonna give up

Iâ€™m Not gonna give up on me no more

Iâ€™m not gonna give up on me no more

Iâ€™m not gonna give up on me no more

Iâ€™m not gonna give up, Iâ€™m not gonna give up

Playing for the winning team

Iâ€™m playing for the winning team

When the whole world makes me want to scream

Iâ€™m playing for the winning, playing for the winning team

Iâ€™m playing for the winning team

Yeah the whole world makes me want to scream

But Iâ€™m playing for the winning, playing for the winning team
