Following Rita

Train

Made my exit on the turnpike Saw the stateside toll and shuffled for some change I paid a man that talked as if he knew me And I could see it in his eyes He could tell that I was runnin' awayWhat are you waitin' for? It's just a minute away Travel light you might just find yourself there for the day What are you waitin' for? It's just a minute away Following Rita, following RitaStopped to make a call and picked up Elvis Elvis James McCabe, a future millionaire He wrestled with his thoughts out loud About two girls that he left behind And said for forty-five dollars

He could help me on my way and get rich tooWhat are you waitin' for? It's just a minute away Travel light you might just find yourself there for the day

What are you waitin' for? It's just a minute away

Following Rita, following RitaThere was talk about after high school I would get a job

Gig at night and she would go to some community school

But her father changed jobs and we cried together

As her plane was flyin' awayWell, the phone never was enough

For us to hold on to

Now every mile that I drive away

Gets me closer to you, yeahWhat are you waitin' for? It's just a minute away

I'm travelin' light you might not want me to stay for the day

What am I waitin' for? It's just a mile away

Following RitaWhat am I waitin' for? It's just a mile away

Travel light you might just find yourself there for the day

Following Rita, following Rita
