Maybe She'll Get Lonely

Jack Ingram

She slammed the screen door
Kicked up the dust pullin out of here
Probably headed for Baton Rouge
Her taillights just disappearedI tried everything within my power
To get her to stay
Guess all I can do right now
Is get on my knees and prayMaybe shell get lonely
Maybe shell turn that wheel around
Maybe shell miss me
Before she hits the edge of town'Cause I love her, I need her
I cant live without her
Yeah, the only hope that Ive got left
Is maybe shell get lonelyRight now shes angry
As mad as Ive ever seen
And if she makes it a hundred miles
That means shes breakin freeI think time is of the essence
I keep ringin her phone
It aint lookin' too good right now
Before shes too far goneMaybe shell get lonely
Maybe shell turn that wheel around
Maybe shell miss me
Before she hits the edge of town'Cause I love her, I need her
I cant live without her
Yeah, the only hope that Ive got left
Is maybe shell get lonelyYeah, I love her, I need her
I miss her, I want her
I cant live without herMaybe shell get lonely
Maybe shell get lonely
The only hope that Ive got left
Is maybe shell get lonely
Maybe shell get lonely
