Ouch That Hurt

Dionne Bromfield

I've fall out a few times But never this far I never knew I'd surrender my heartEverytime that you leave You keep getting to me Now I'm starting to see This is loveChorus: Ouch that hurt come kiss it better oh my my oho hooOuch that hurt baby whatever you do let me be the one who kisses it better for youI'm insecure now and I'm feeling afraid For me it's a real thing But for you it is only a gameChorus: Ouch that hurt come kiss it better oh my my oho hooOuch that hurt baby whatever you do let me be the one who kisses it better for youEverytime that you leave you keep getting to me now i'm starting to see this is loveOuch that hurt come kiss it better oh my my oho hooOuch that hurt come kiss it better kiss it better kiss it betterOuch that hurt come kiss it better oh my my oho hooOuch that hurt come kiss it better baby whatever you do

let me be the one who

kisses it better for you
