Am I Not Yours?

Cursive

Who's your school friend?
He left you some messages He'd love to see you again thinks your ideas are brilliant and and since you've been going out for coffee with him lately well is he a pretty good-looking guy?
Jealousy Jealousy
am I am I am I not yours not yours not yours?
We stopped for some alcohol and you stayed in the car
The bars had gotten out that line was so long and I saw you over on the pay phone well so I was thinking who do you ever call at one a.m.?
I wondered who that was Jealousy Jealousy
I am I am I am
not yours not yours not yours
We lay so stiffly
and act like we're sleeping My eyes are staring and you're not breathing heavily and I know when you're sleeping you purr so softly on my neck
Jealousy
I am I am I am
a whore a whore a whore
