

Abandon Ship

Busta Rhymes

Uhh! You don't know what we doing right here
One two three we gon' turn it out
And make you rock to the beat and then scream and shout
We gonna hit you with the shit we got here
We gonna blow your mind
(Blow your mind)
Keep it movin' like this, keep it movin' like that
If I die, I'ma only come back
Yo, I'm saying if you think that you can step to me wrong
Don't even waste your time
(Waste your time) One two three we gon' turn it out
And make you rock to the beat and then scream and shout
We gonna hit you with the shit we got here
We gonna blow your mind
(Blow your mind)
Keep it movin' like this, keep it movin' like that
If I die, I'ma only come back
Yo, I'm saying if you think that you can step to me wrong
Don't even waste your time
(Waste your time) You niggaz talk shit then abandon ship
Niggaz talk shit, then they abandon ship
Niggaz talk shit, then they abandon ship
Niggaz talk shit, then they abandon ship
I 8 Off like the assassin, now I'm blastin' I'm takin' over
Stick you for your blue range rover
I told ya, rampage a real live soldier
Been in the game, sinc the age of thirteen
A microphone fiend, so I'm goin' to see my P.O.
It's August the 1st, so I guess I'm a Leo
My P.O., look like Vanessa Del Rio
She pulled my rap sheet, just like, Net Geo
I always roam through the forest
Just like a brontosaurus, born in the month of May
So my sign is Taurus, kick you in your face
Like my fuckin' name was Chuck Norris, make you sing my chorus
Rock to the beat and then, turn into a walrus
You remain nameless, my victory remains flawless
Acting like you wild, but I know you really harmless
While your time is coming, I make the fat shit regardless
Many niggaz wanna know when the ramp return
Yo, I'm gettin' phone calls from that nigga Howard Stern
He wants to know about my flip mode click
The way we get down and bust niggaz shit

LP after LP, we make G's
 I run up in your ganks den take you for your keys
 I'm not lying or joking, you get broken
 Dead in Flat bush, back to Roanoke and People always askin' me, how your shit be sellin'
 For makin' shit guaranteed to bust your fuckin' melon
 Police throwed me up on charges like I was a felon
 There was no tellin', when I was strikin' had you swellin'
 Cruisin' in my lands, watch the police how they be gellin'
 Lock you up for days and got a nigga ass smellin'
 Yo, fuck that! You best believe there ain't no time for dwellin'
 If you ain't makin' noise you need to kill the fuckin' yellin' One two three we gon' turn it out
 And make you rock to the beat and then scream and shout
 We gonna hit you with the shit we got here
 We gonna blow your mind
 (Blow your mind)
 Keep it movin' like this, keep it movin' like that
 If I die, I'ma only come back
 Yo, I'm saying if you think that you can step to me wrong
 Don't even waste your time
 (Waste your time) You niggaz talk shit then abandon ship
 Niggaz talk shit, then they abandon ship
 Niggaz talk shit, then they abandon ship
 Niggaz talk shit, then they abandon ship Yo, yo, yo I run up in your set like a New York City
 I can't slip, I beat you down with my vice grip
 Your lost, that means you way off course
 No remorse, I'm gettin' five in the source
 I be saddle back biting motherfuckers like a horse
 Turn and toss, niggaz all up in my applesauce
 Watch me reinforce, my shit feel good like intercourse
 Ever since I was a shorty rockin' Hugo Boss Aiyyo bust it Bust you just made my day
 (Why)
 If you didn't put me on I'd be locked like O.J.
 Now I'm writin' rhymes hittin' shorties everyday
 In the full runnin' drinkin' ice tanqueray
 I don't eat pork I take a fish fellet
 Now I'm knockin' out niggaz from to to touche!
 Now I'm goin' back around the way
 I'm rippin' shit, like my name was Marvin Gaye Yo, now I'm back with more Bionic like my name was Colt
 Seavers
 Got you niggaz open like a bunch of wide receivers
 Time is on the meter, go clean your act up in the cleaners
 Chicken head, give me some of your chicken fajitas
 Yo, I beg your pardon, I write my rhymes way past the margins
 Squeeze the Charmin, peace to one million men marchin'
 When you talk shit you really don't know what you startin'

Now your shit is done like a fuckin' empty milk carton
It's on for the nine-six, mad shows at the Ritz
Now we got you open like Fixx
Stickin' to your stomach like Quaker Oat Grits
Fisherman hat with my brand new kicks
On the low, I still rock my Girbauds
See the show, I got my nickel plated fo' fo'
All my rough niggaz open the do'
'Cause boy scout brings the ruckus and I'm still hardco'
Yo, when I walk streets you know my blade's a little sharper
Fuck Peter Parker, I cross you like a magic marker
Every time I hit I always hit a little harder
Blazing to the point where niggaz look a little darker
Catching suntans from my music, fans understand
Making fat shit, I always love to lend a helping hand
Organized rhyme unit like the Poison Clan
While your ride is busted, I be your luxury Sedan
Number one nigga in the chain of command
Breakin' fool in school like my nigga Geechie Dan
Aiyo, I see intruders on my scan
Singing at your funeral like Bobby Blue bland
One two three we gon' turn it out
And make you rock to the beat and then scream and shout
We gonna hit you with the shit we got here
We gonna blow your mind
(Blow your mind)
Keep it movin' like this, keep it movin' like that
If I die, I'ma only come back
Yo, I'm saying if you think that you can step to me wrong
Don't even waste your time
(Waste your time)
