Half

Js

Sista
I started to burn your clothes
I started to scratch your car
I started to call my brothers
But I don't have to go that far
Was about to get back at you
The way scandalous women do
All because you weren't true
And I don't have to take this from you
(Half)
I can't take it no more
(Half)
Time to face the door
(Half)
I'm tired of these silly games
(Half)
I'm about to make a change
(Half)
Think you better leave your keys
(Half)
I was sleeping with the enemy
(Half)
Now your friends can't do nothing for ya
(Half)
Think you're gonna need a lawyer
I started to call her up
And let her know who I am
But seein' as I'm build so tough
See I don't have to show that hand
About to just lose my cool
About to just act a fool
You open your closet door
Now I'll be seein' your ass in court
(Half)
I can't take it no more
(Half)
Boy, you better face the door
(Half)
I'm tired of these silly games

(Half)
I'm about to make a change
(Half)
You better leave your keys
(Half)
I was sleeping with the enemy
(Half)
Now your friends can't do nothing for ya
(Half)
For you're gonna need a lawyer
Quit calling me, baby
(Baby)
Telling me you're sorry
(Sorry)
'Cuz that don't work now
I've fallin' outta love now
See you can get the car, boy
(You)
And I get the house, boy
You walk with the TV
And I get to go free
(Half)
Now wait a minute boy and lemme explain
Sit back and talk about why things change
We were rolling like a freight train
But a lil' two young for love to maintain
You were comin' up just like a skyscraper
Grew up in the hood chasing that paper
Dim to the bling, dice to the scene
You done had it all from the crop to the cream
Came to America like Javi the king
Like Eddie you saw me then claimed your queen
Starting ego tripping while sitting on them thangs
Now you gettin' played like a cash machine
(Half)
I can't take it no more
(Half)
Time to face the door
(Half)
Tired of these silly games
(Half)
And I'm about to make a change
(Half)
I think you better leave your keys
(Half)

I was sleeping with the enemy
(Half)
Friends can't do nothing for ya
(Half)
You better get a lawyer
(Half)
I can't take it no more
(Half)
Time to face the door
(Half)
I'm tired of these silly games
(Half)
'Bout to make a change
(Half)
I can't take it no more
(Half)
About to face the door
(Half)
I'm tired of these silly games
(Half)
I'm 'bout to make a change
You've got the best of me
(Half)
Pulling phony capers
(Half)
I'm so glad that I
(Half)
I didn't sign them papers
(Half)
Too blind to see half
How you were treating me
(Half)
Here is what I want, half
A check and I'm moving on
(Half)
Half, half, half, half, half
Half, half, half, half, half
