

Desire

Poets of the Fall

Fatal velocity comes on with a rush overpowering gives the final push What never moves, is never still
who has the final word?
It holds the world, in a single pill
and all life redendred absurd.. if you

Kill sweet desire, faith may numb the trial
but can you run all your life
Kill sweet desire, truth will make a liar
you can run but not hide
So run for your life

A false sincerity, a liar and a thief my pulse and memory a comfort whitin grief
What never moves, is never still
who has the final word?
It holds the world, in a single pill
and all life is redendred absurd...if you

Kill sweet desire, faith may numb the trial
but can you run all your life
Kill sweet desire, truth will make a liar

So given into this sensation-feel i've run too far Cannot see beyond emotion-see what the options are With no faith to trust the motion
I feel i'm loosing all control...Yeah

Kill sweet desire, faith may numb the trial
but can you run all your life
Kill sweet desire, truth will make a liar

Kill sweet desire.....
